SDA'S PRIVACY POLICY

SDA's Commitment to Online Security. Physical, electronic and managerial procedures have been employed to safeguard the security and integrity of customers personal information.

Personal Information that SDA May Collect Online. SDA collects personal information online from customers interested in our program including names, postal and e-mail addresses, phone and facsimile numbers, etc as shown on SDA's Contact Us Form. SDA does not knowingly collect or maintain any personal information from children under the age of 18. In addition, no part of our site is designed with the purpose of attracting any person under age 18.

How SDA Uses Personal Information Collected Online. SDA will use your personal information only for the purpose for which it is submitted, such as to reply to your emails, answer questions related to financing, etc. SDA never sells your personal information. SDA may release personal information only where release is required by law (for example, a subpoena) or regulation or is requested by a government agency.

Computer Tracking and Cookies. Our web site is not set up to track, collect or distribute personal information not entered by visitors. Our site logs do generate certain kinds of non-identifying site usage data, such as the number of hits and visits to our site. This information is used for internal purposes by technical support staff to provide better services to the public. A cookie is a small amount of data that is sent to your browser from a Web server and stored on your computer's hard drive. SDA uses non-identifying cookies to provide easier site navigation. You can still use the SDA site if your browser is set to reject cookies. Our cookies do not generate personal data, do not read personal data from your machine, and are never tied to anything that could be used to identify you.
